Anglian Water Framework
In-line Interceptor Removal

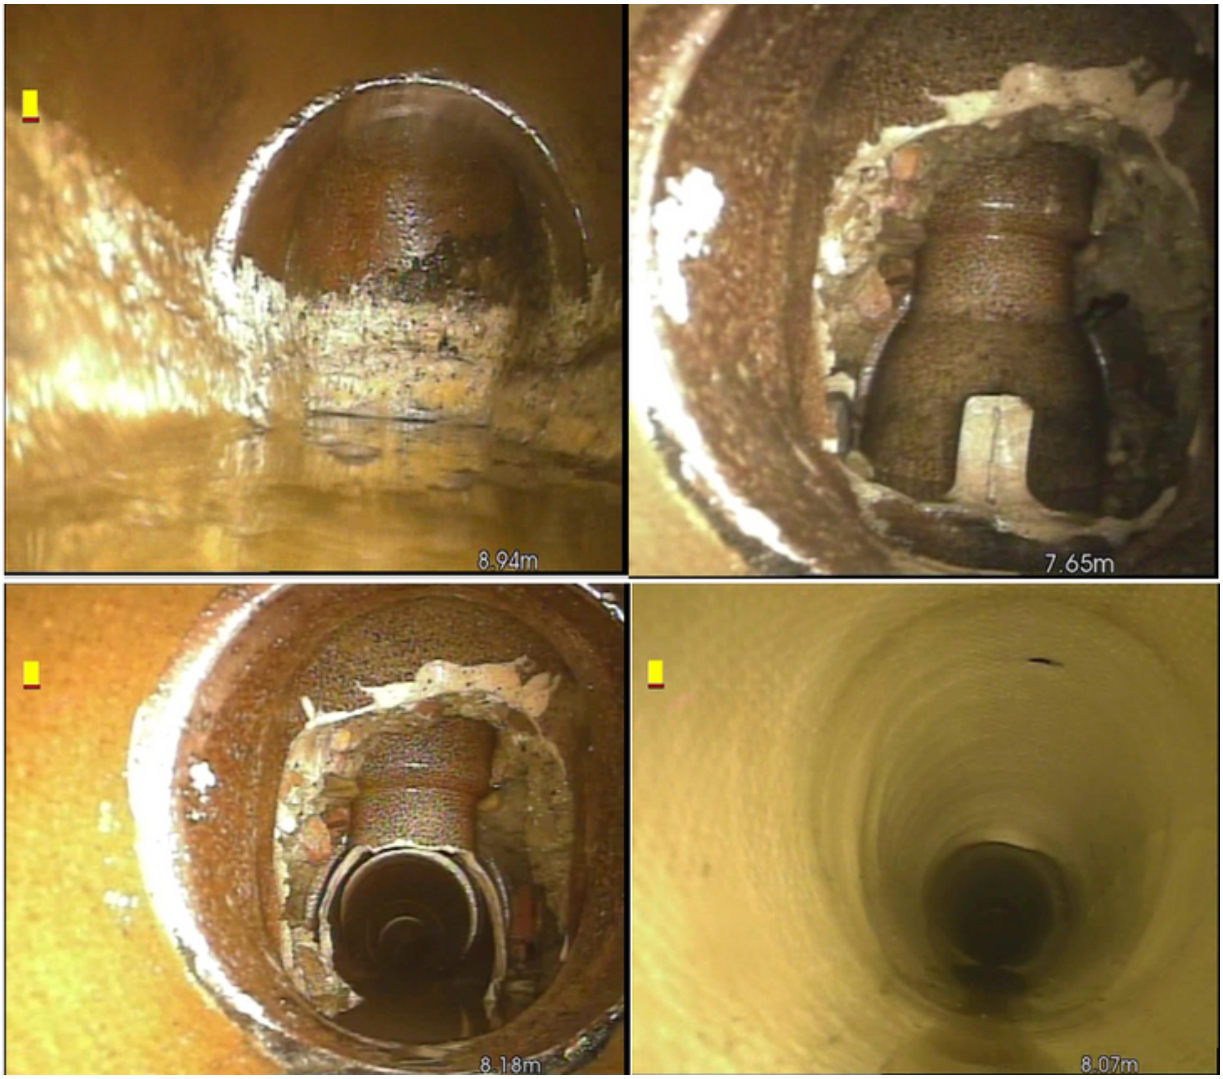
The Project

This was an In-Line Interceptor that was removed using No-Dig Technology.

This was located underneath a building and digging was not an option.

Using our cutting edge robotic equipment we ground through the Interceptor and then installed a glass fibre patch to seal the through the sewer.

At a Glance

Client
Anglian Water


Area of Expertise
Pipelining